

I am opposed to the changes of media ownership as proposed by the commission. The public needs more diversification of programming and views. Already there is limited availability of perspectives. Please do not relax media ownership regulations. Put public interest foremost in the decision.